

Itinerary for Summer Adventures 2016

June 19th – July 10th with Ann Viveros and Robert Reed

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
Travelers arrive at Guatemala City International Airport by noon and travel together by Casa Xelaju bus to Quetzaltenango. Arrival in time for supper at your host's home.	Tour the landmarks in the city and Historic Center. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lc2DI4UD2no	Dance Class: Cumbia and Merengue https://goo.gl/9fSzEK	Group A: Volunteer work at La Pedrera Community Project https://goo.gl/eV5NON Group B: Cooking Class: Empanadas de Pollo https://goo.gl/mf2j7Q	Visit an organic small textile factory in Momostenango. https://goo.gl/QriEP1	Mayan ceremony with a Shaman https://goo.gl/vI5CM8	Trip to Lake Atitlán. Sleep in Panajachel to visit Santiago where we listen to a presentation on the role the Catholic Church played during the Civil War. https://goo.gl/aeGfL6
Trip to Chichicastenango, the largest artisan market in Central America. Great place to purchase your souvenirs. https://goo.gl/WD3Bj2	Luxuriate in the mountain hot springs of Las Georginas https://goo.gl/xNBVDz	Dance class: Salsa and Bachata https://goo.gl/9fSzEK	Group A: Cooking Class: Jocom https://goo.gl/mf2j7Q Group B: Volunteer work at La Pedrera Community Project https://goo.gl/eV5NON	Visit a rural school in Retalhuleu. Stay at the IRTA hotel with Mayan themed water park.	Visit a middle school in Palmar.	Morning hike to the mystical Laguna de Chikabal https://goo.gl/qMcnby In the afternoon we'll have classes.
(Classes in the Morning.) Visit church in San Andrés Xecul and underground wine factory in Salcajá. https://goo.gl/7OSlht	Visit Almolonga, San Simón, a Maya god and a textile co-op. https://goo.gl/o591rL	Visit to Trama Textiles. https://goo.gl/hUWRCo	Visit to Museum of Guatemalan typical clothing ending with a weaving class.	Chocolate Class. https://goo.gl/vOYjdl	Closing Ceremony: food, skits, singing, dancing, etc.	In the morning depart Quetzaltenango to Antigua. Visit a macadamia farm in the afternoon.
Return to the U.S.

